

The image shows a full page of graph paper with a grid of small squares. A large rectangular area on the left side of the page is shaded in a light gray color, extending from the top to the bottom and covering approximately the first 10 columns of the grid. The rest of the page is unshaded and contains the standard grid pattern.

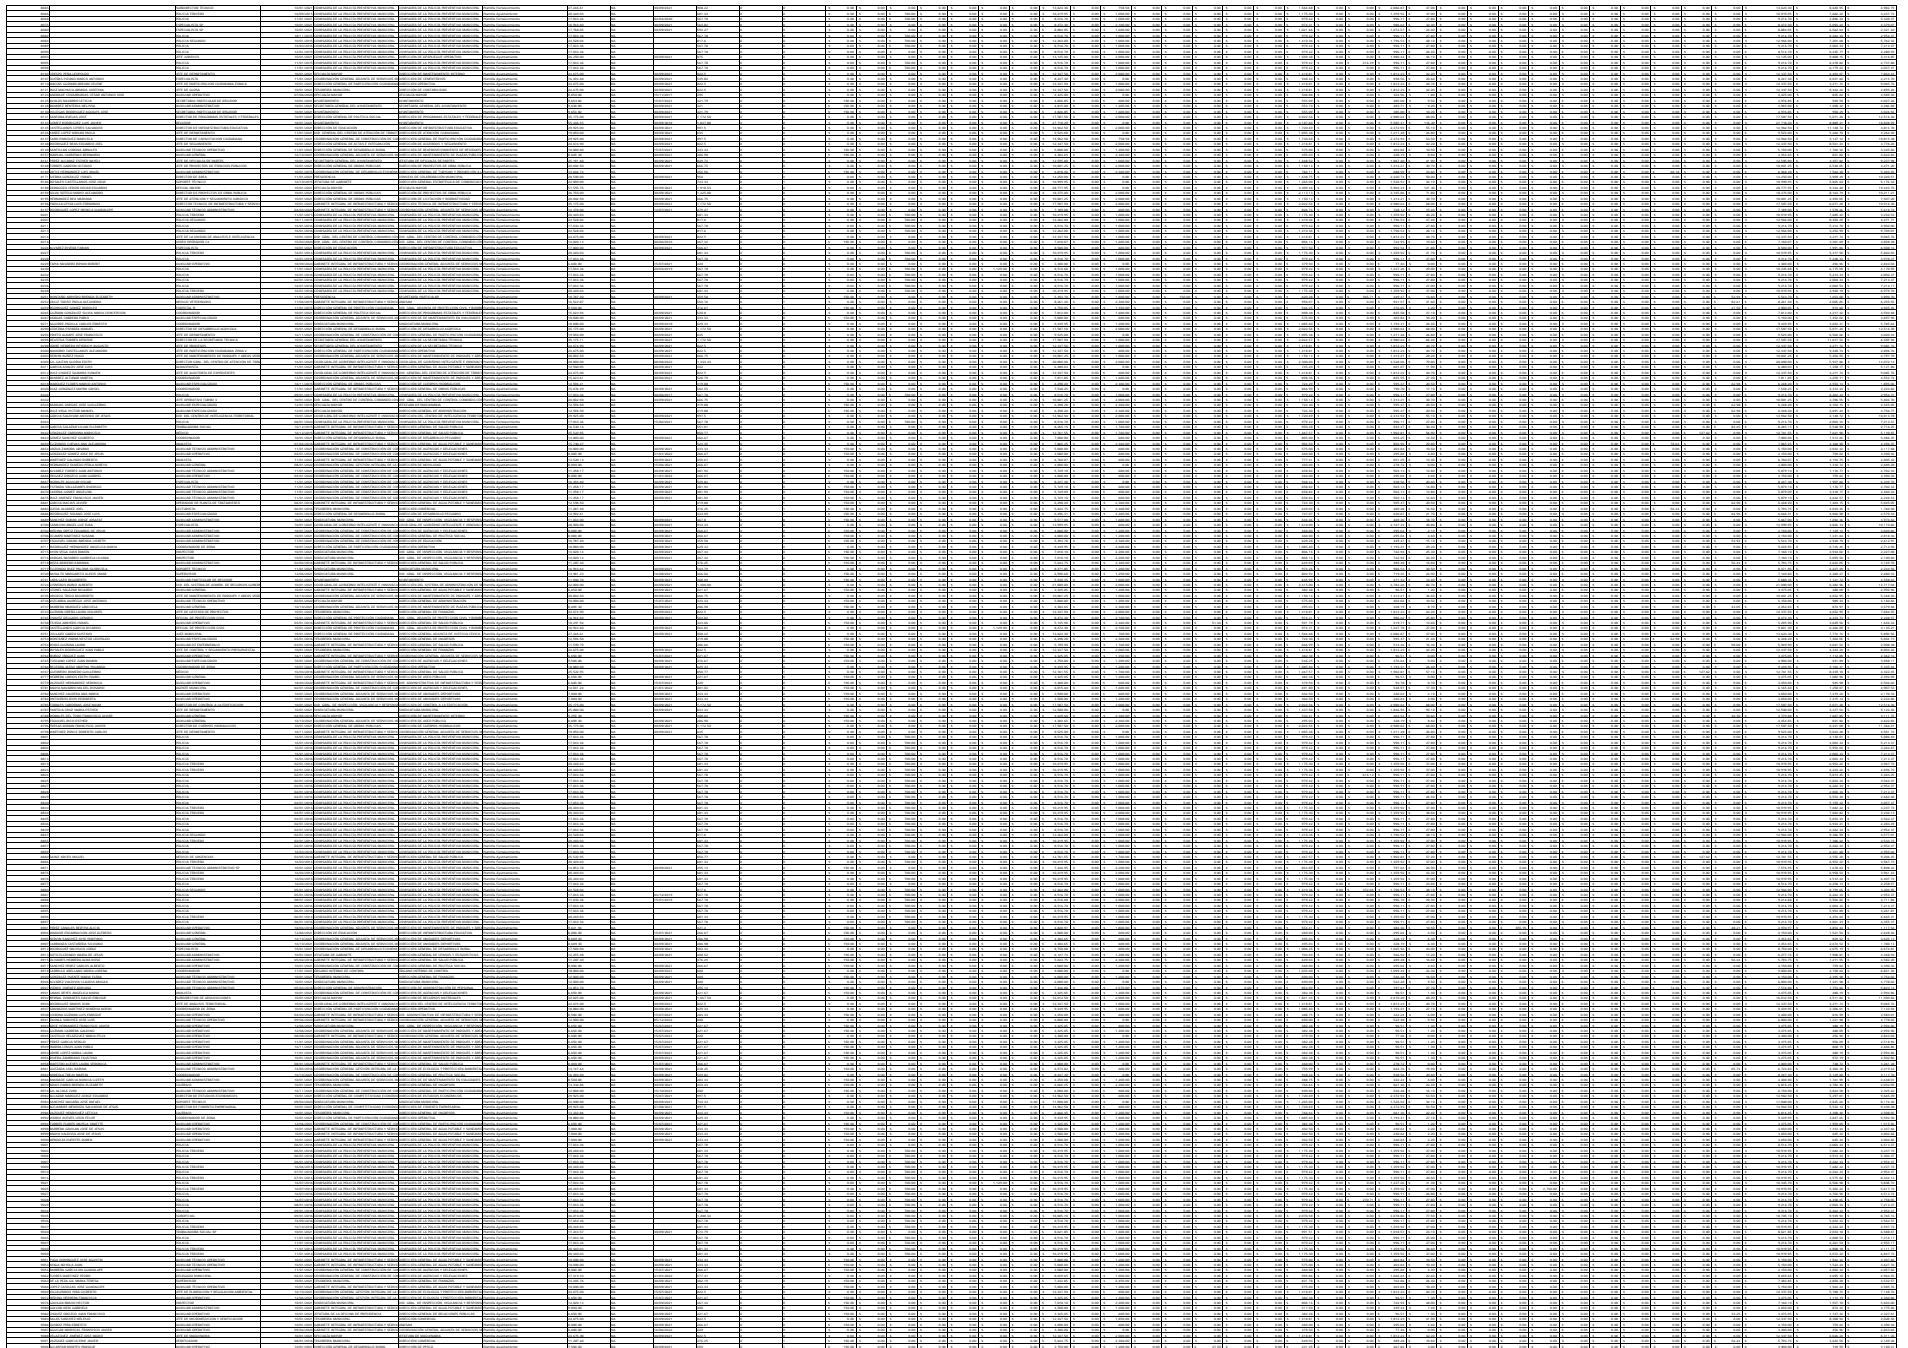

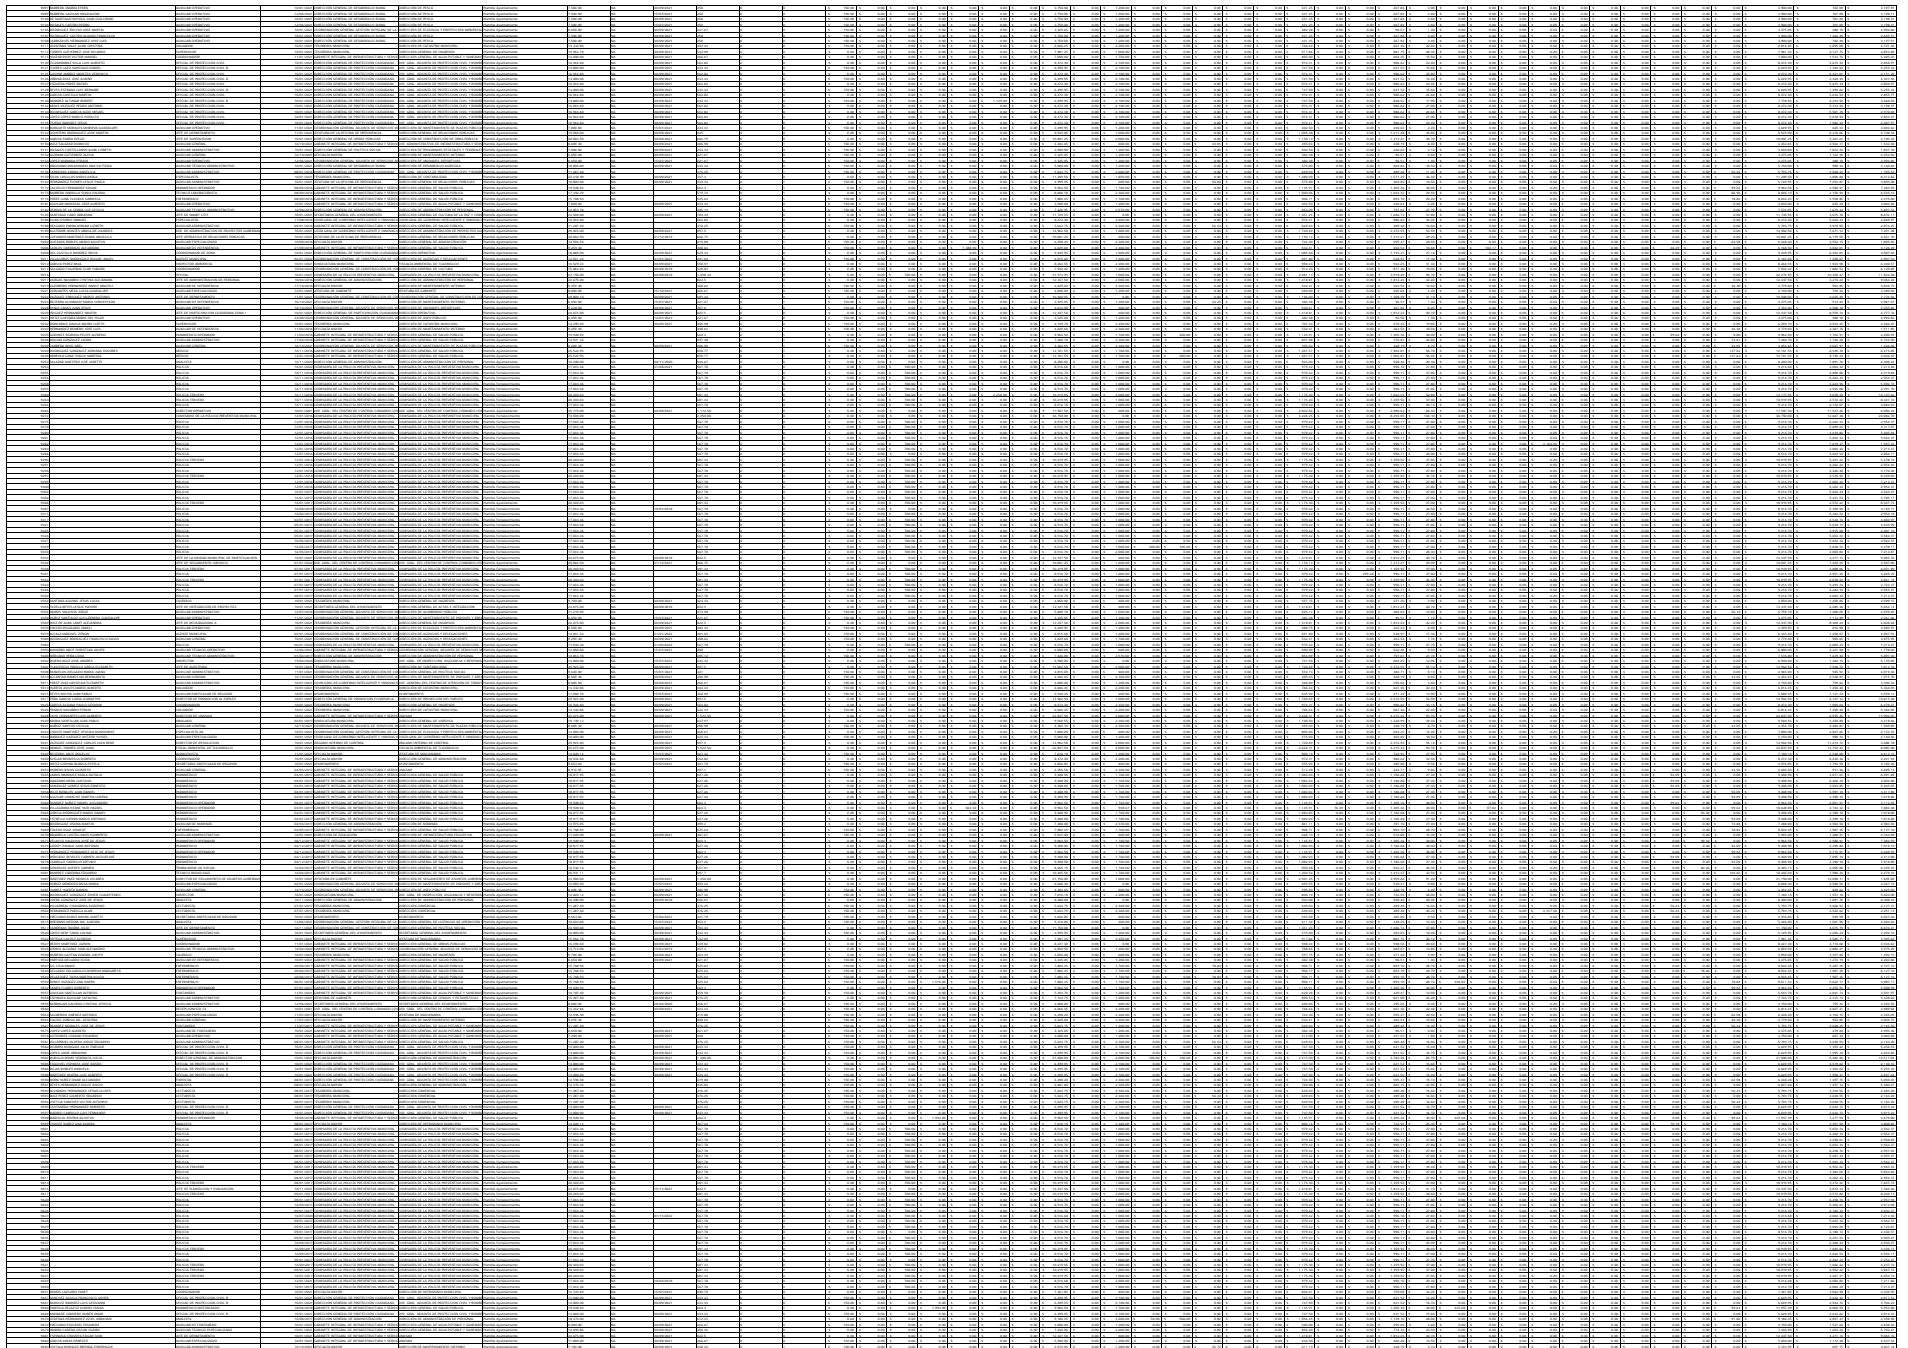

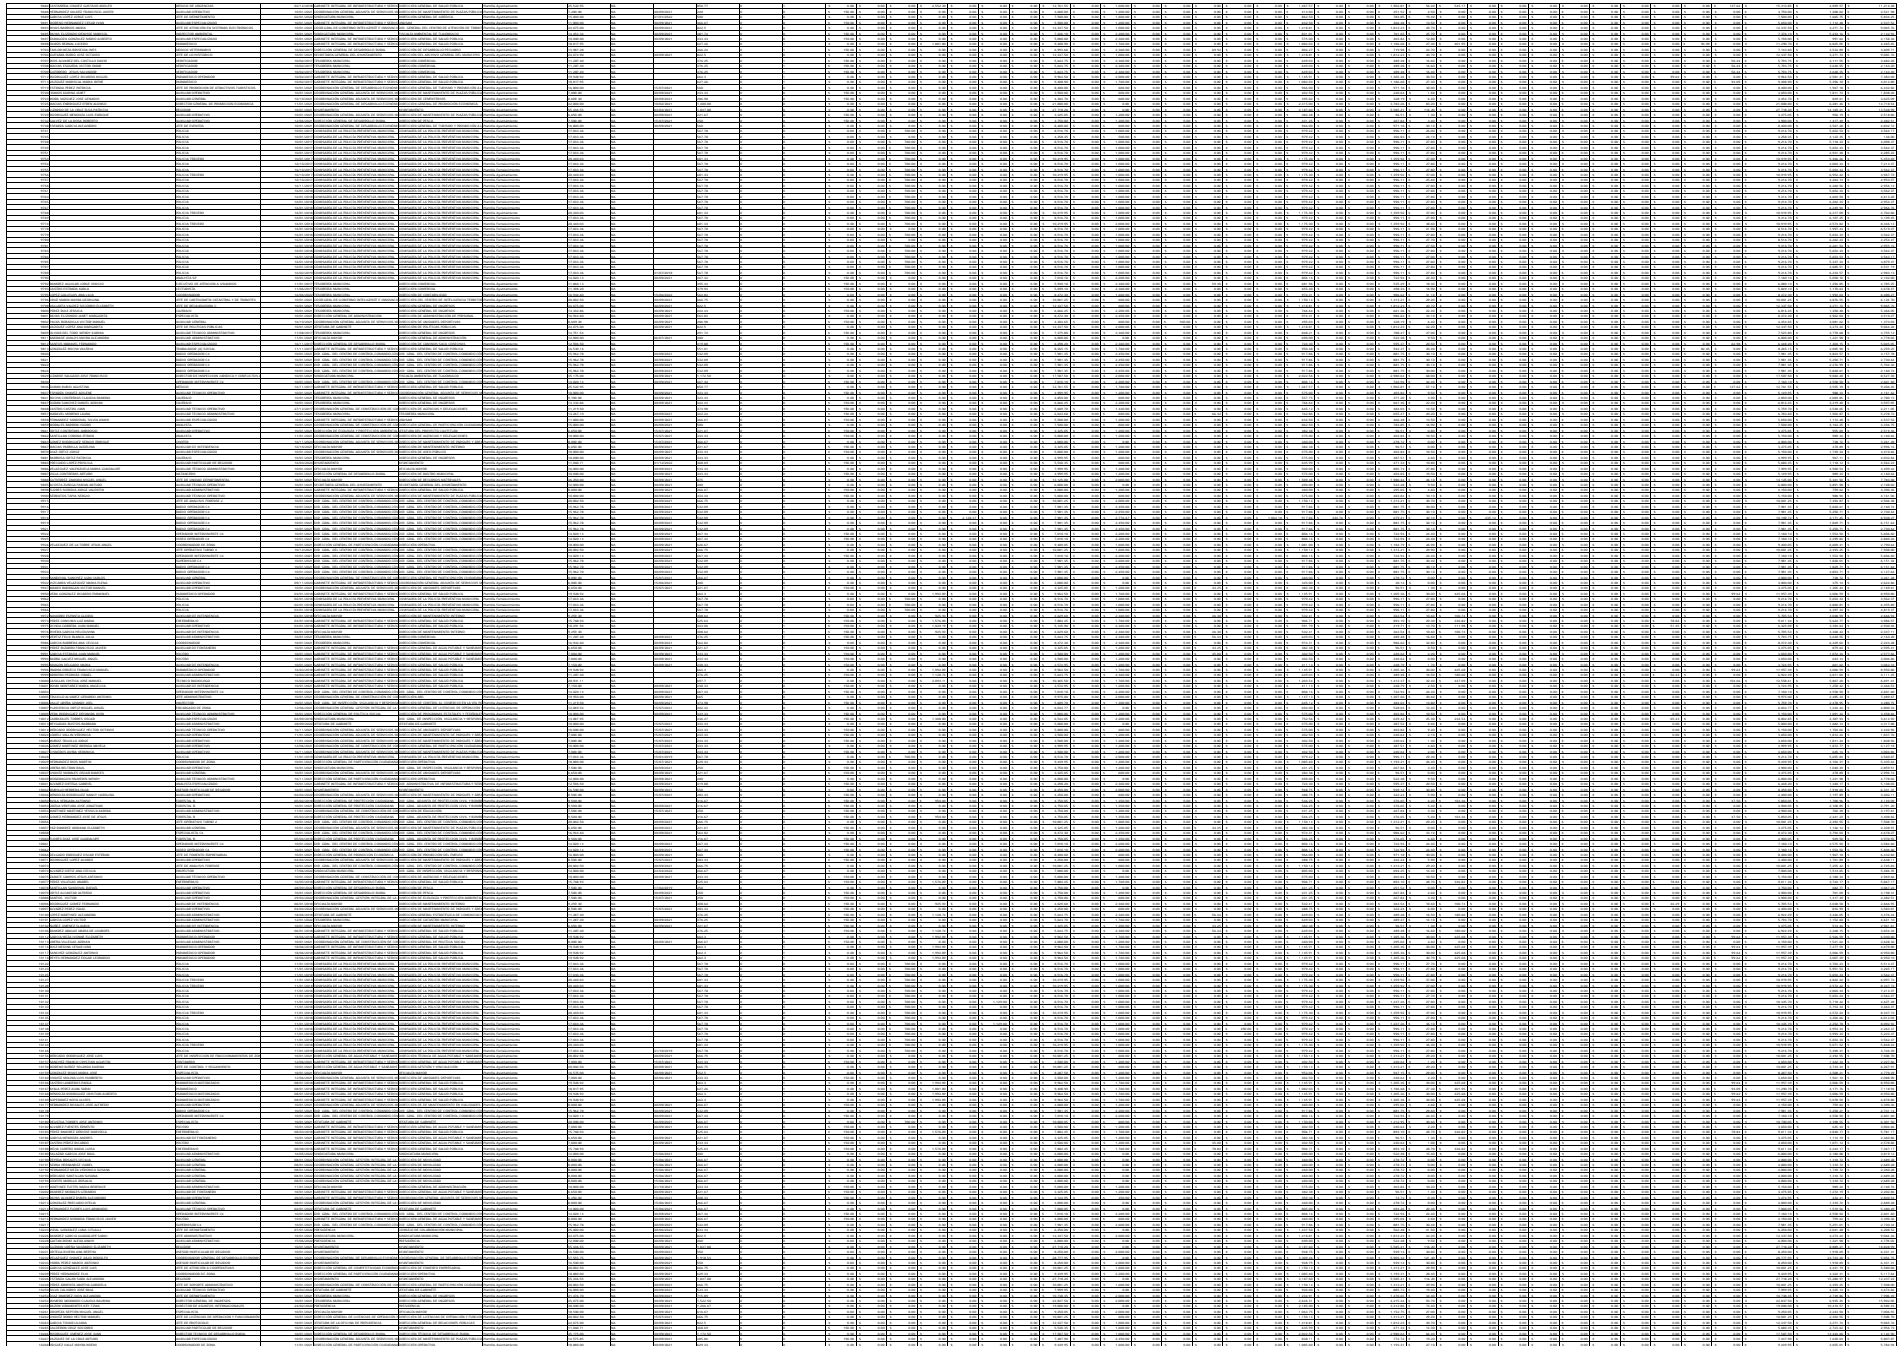

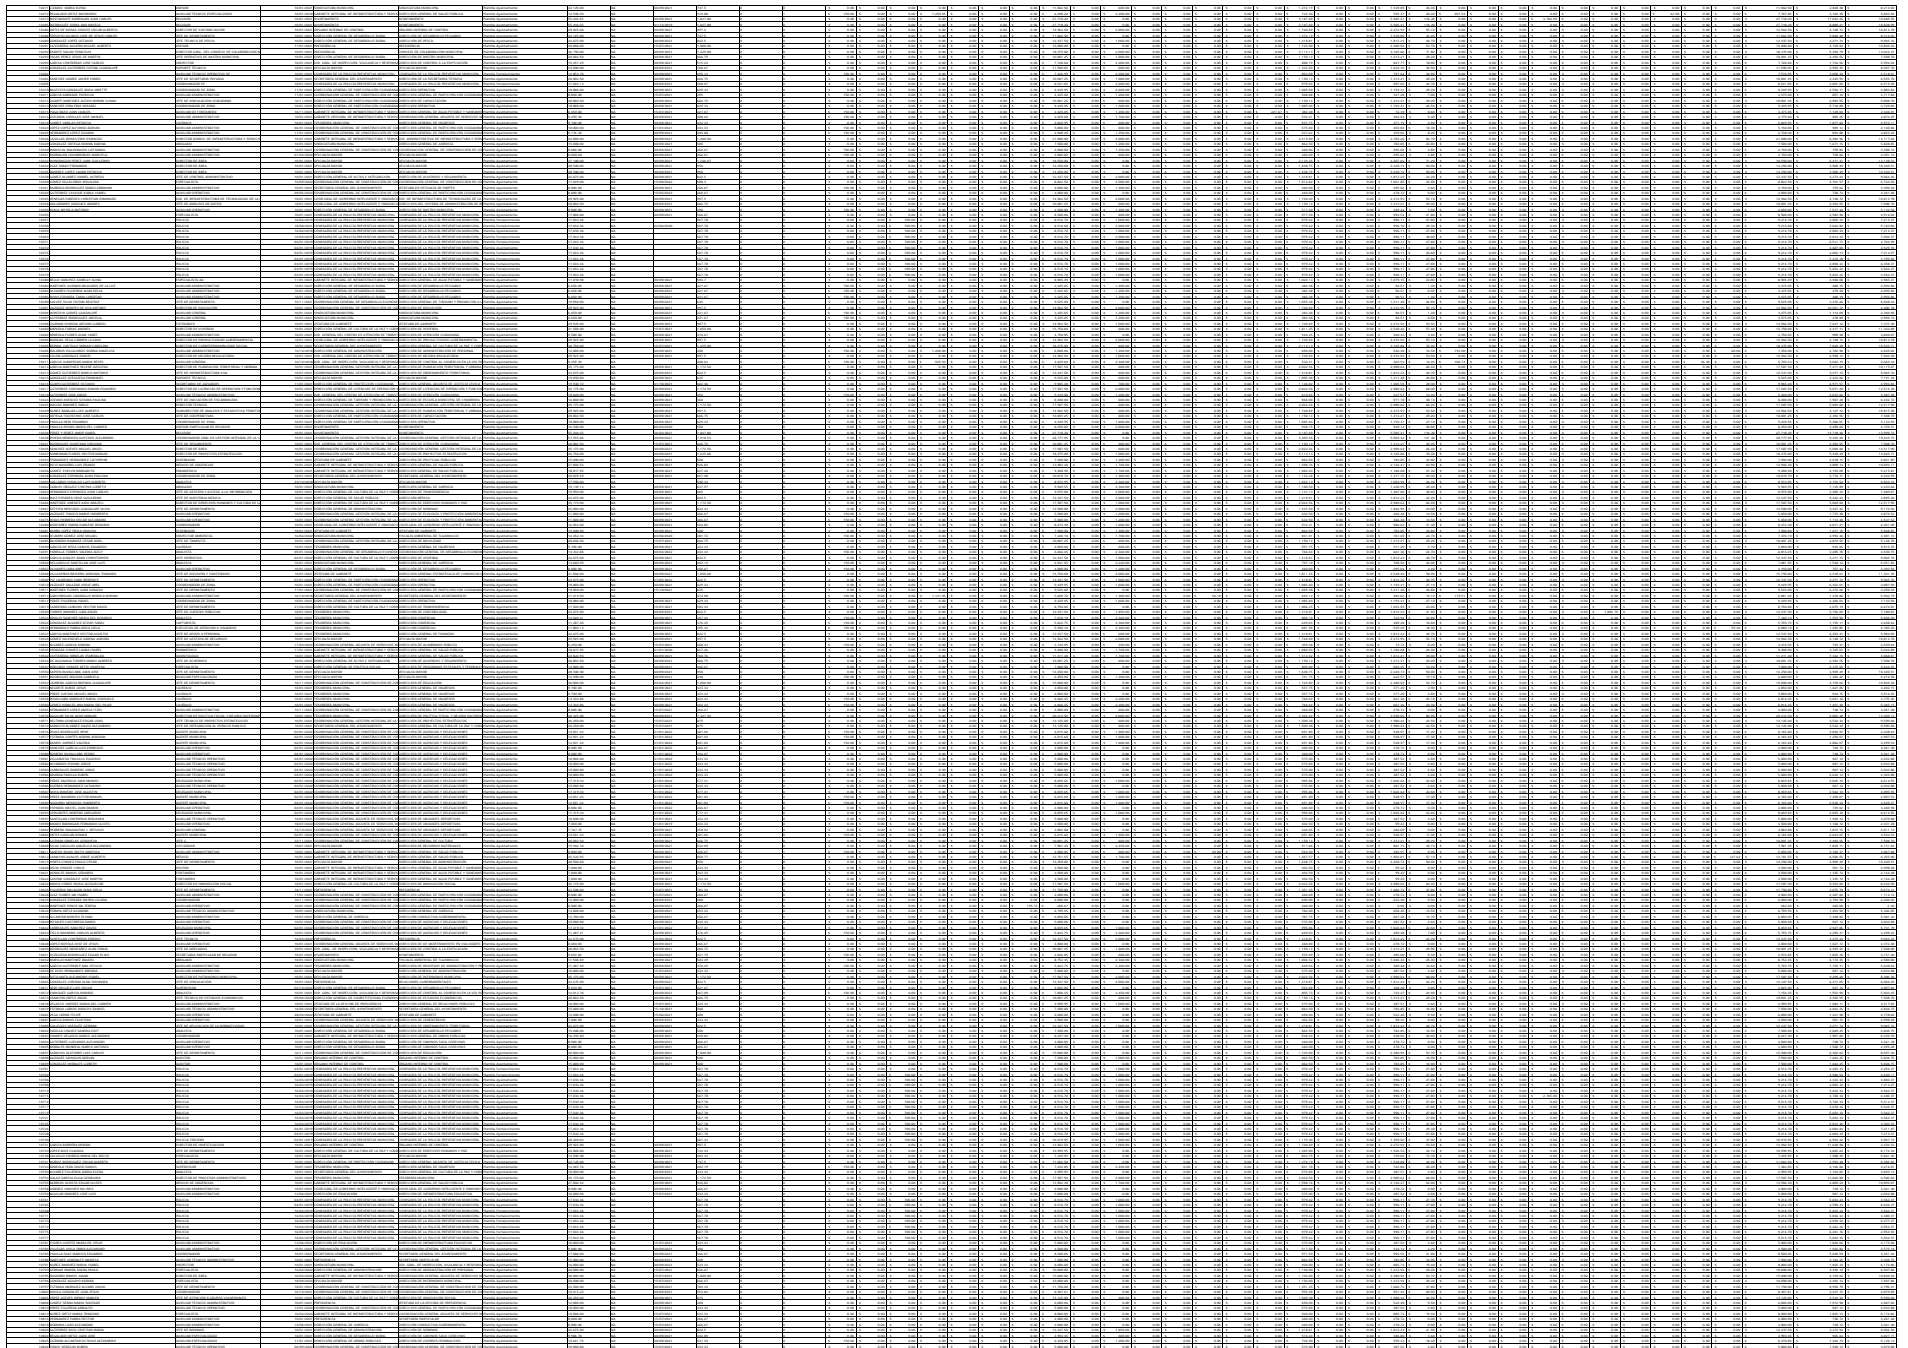

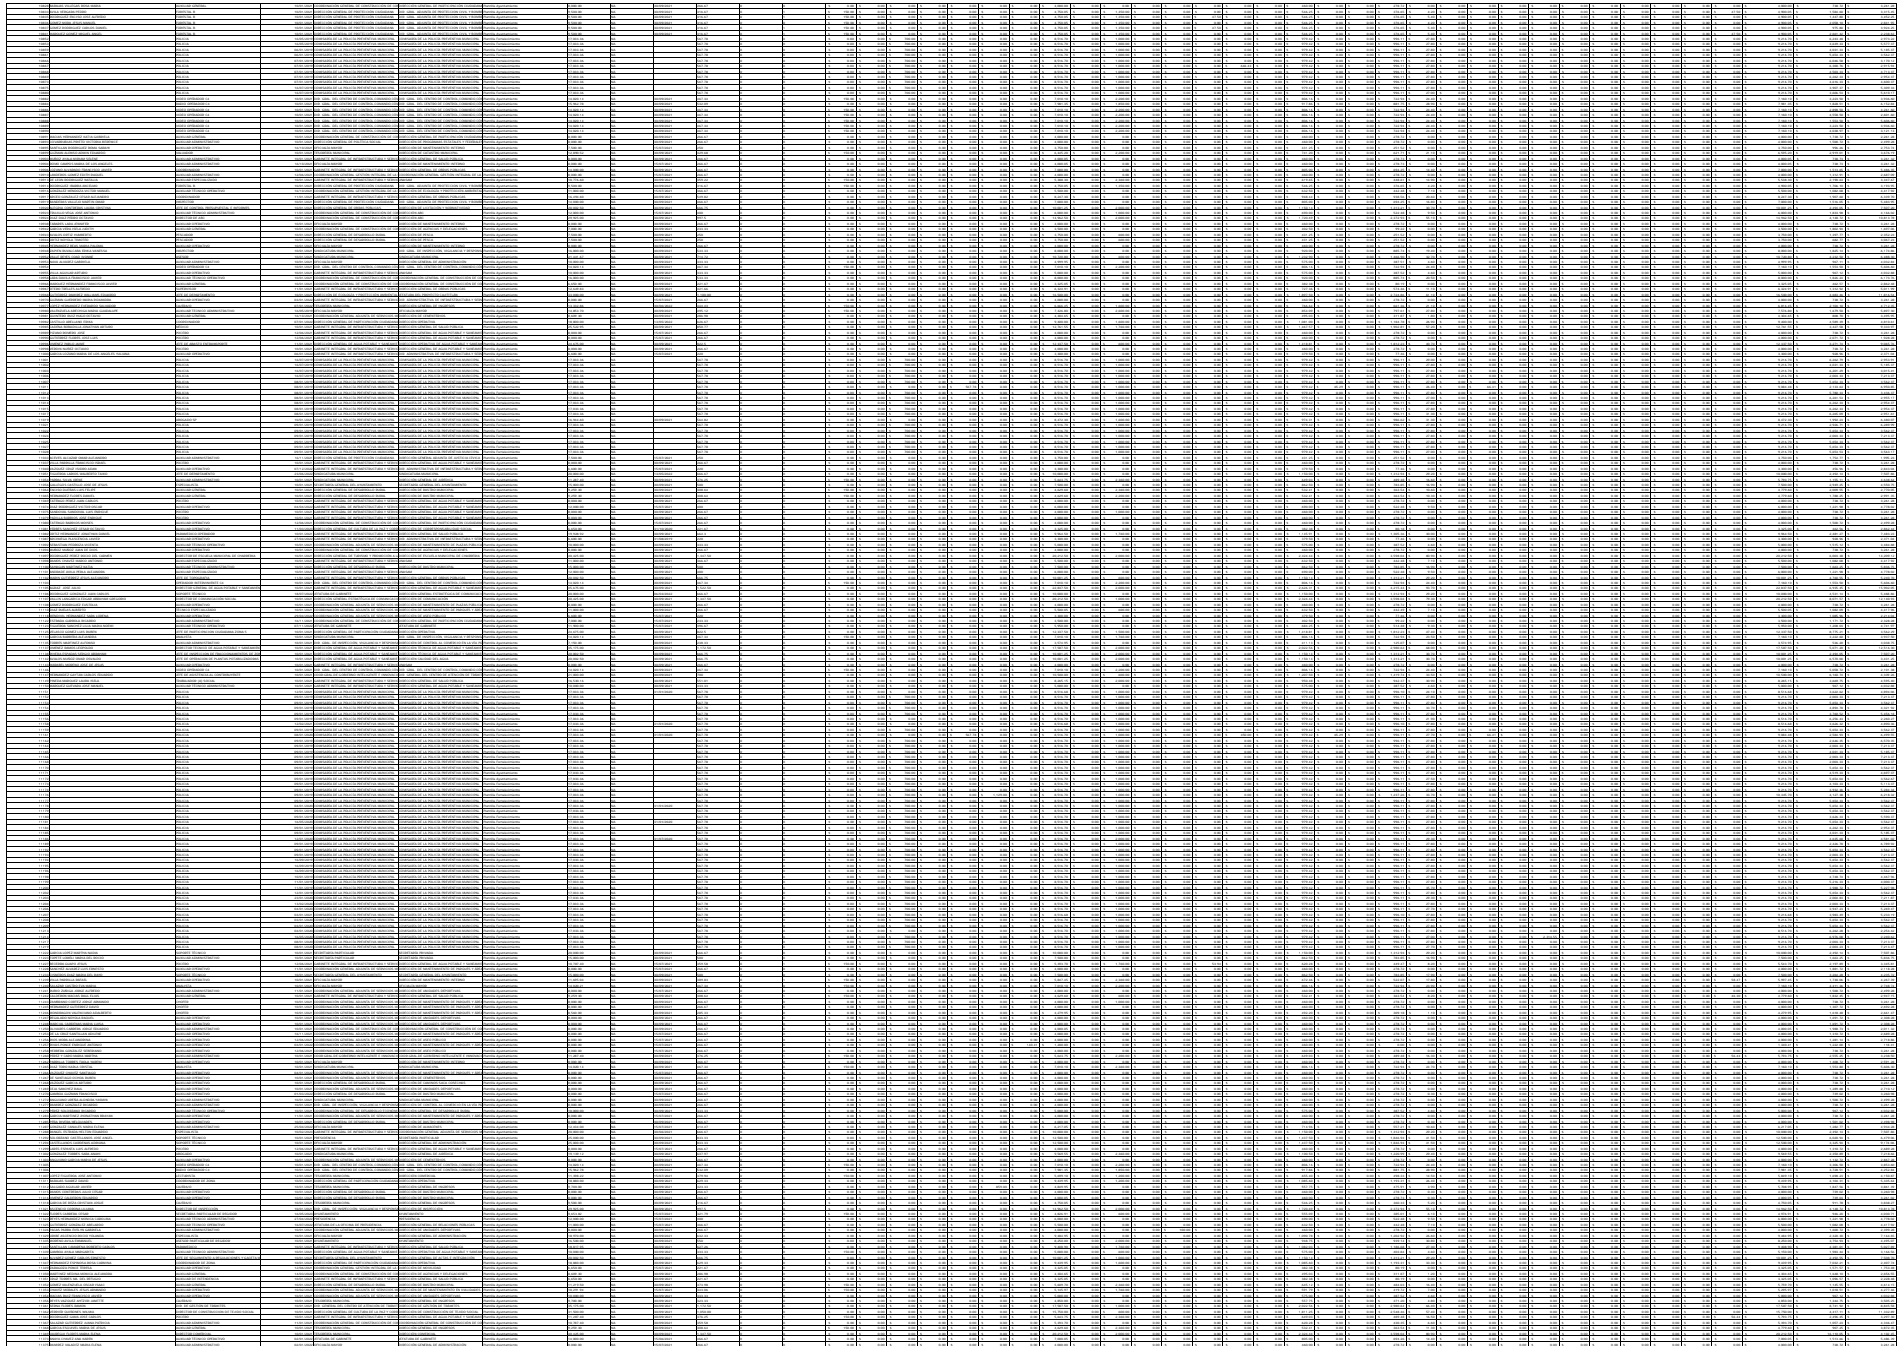

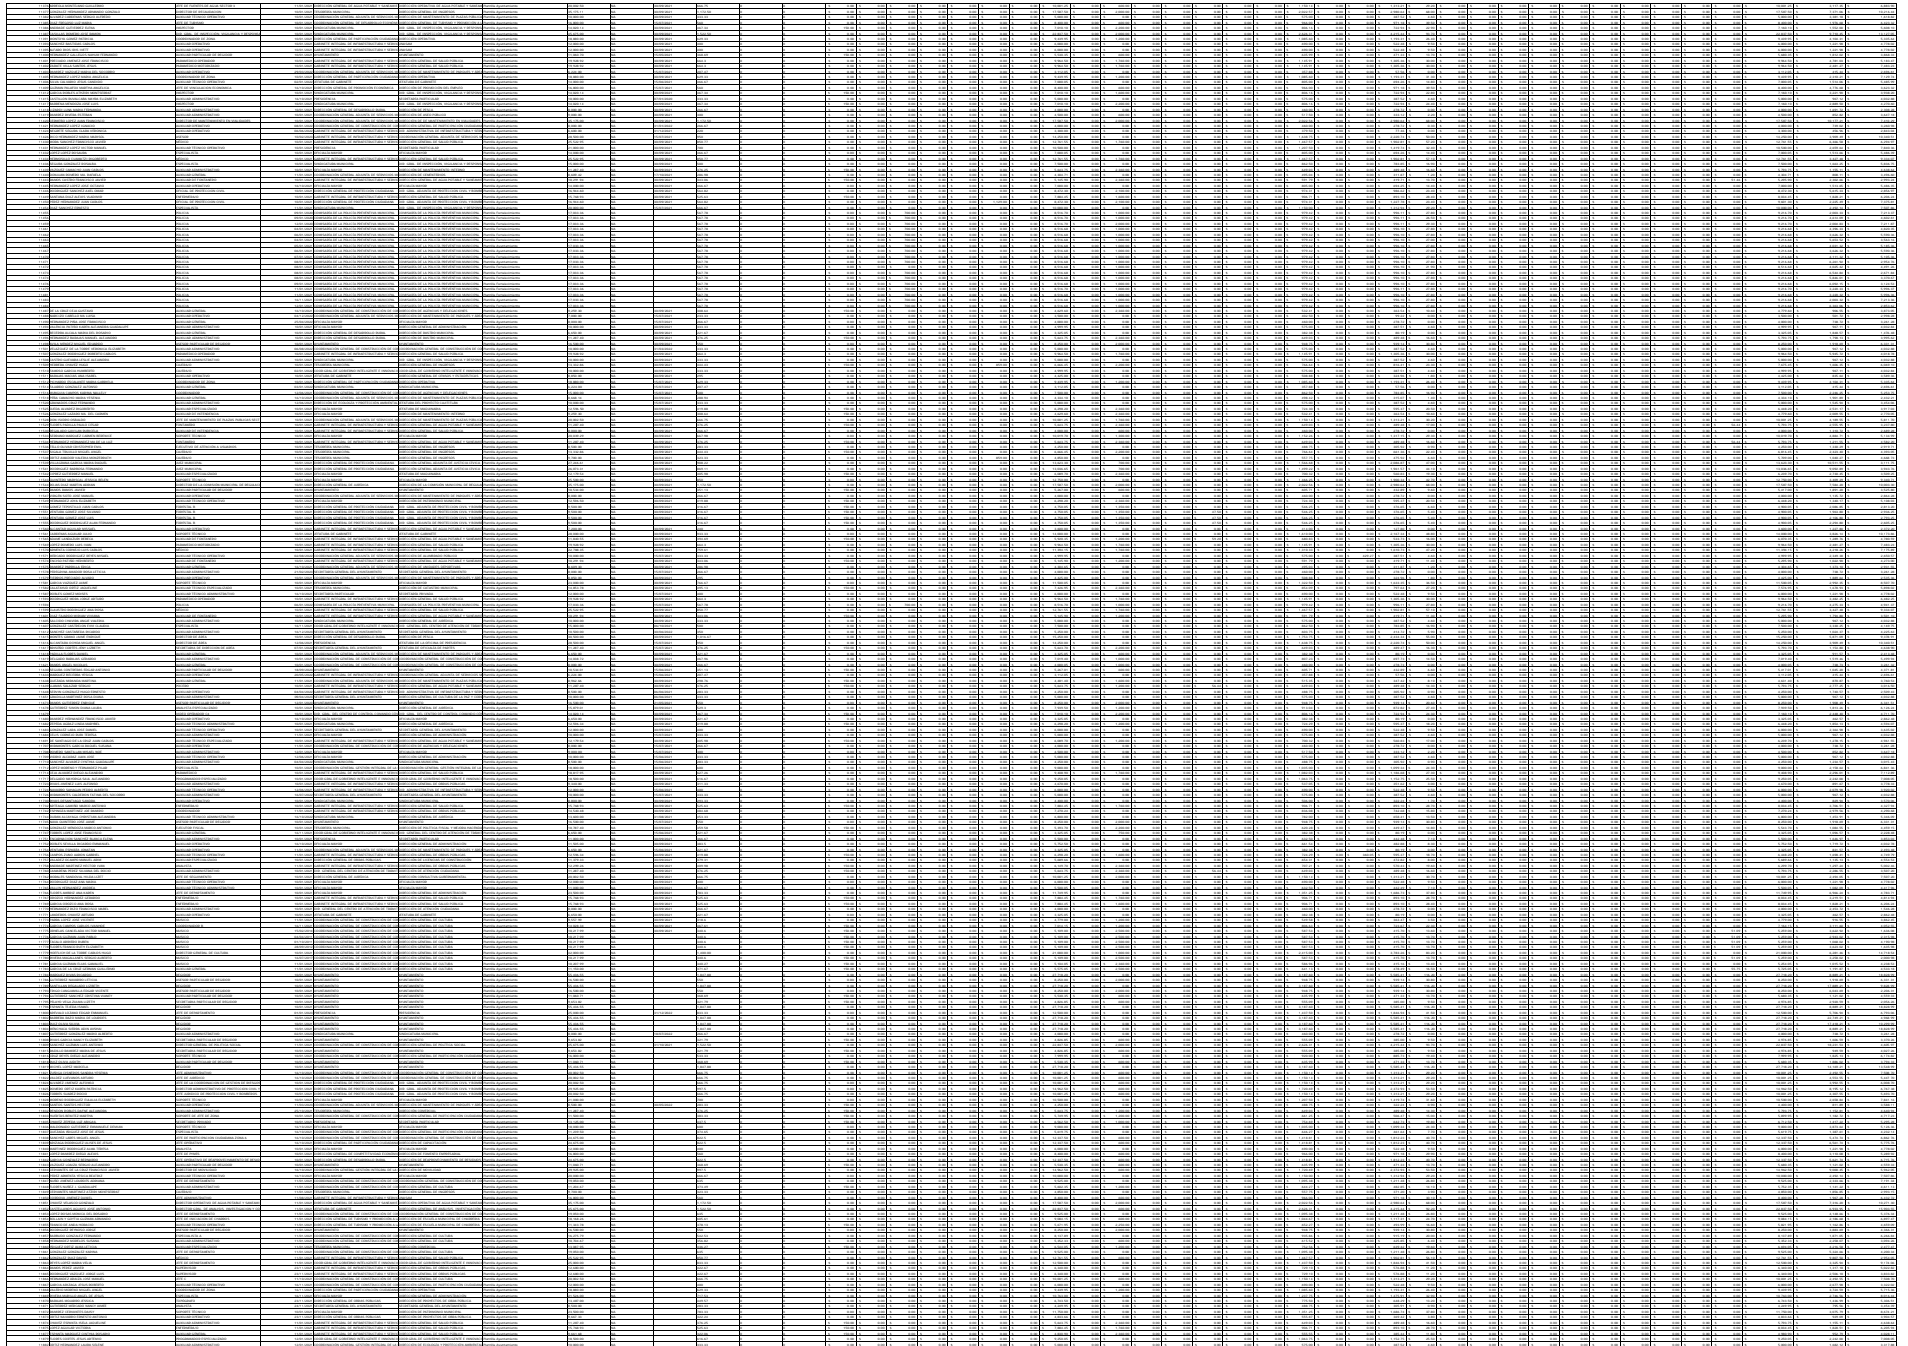

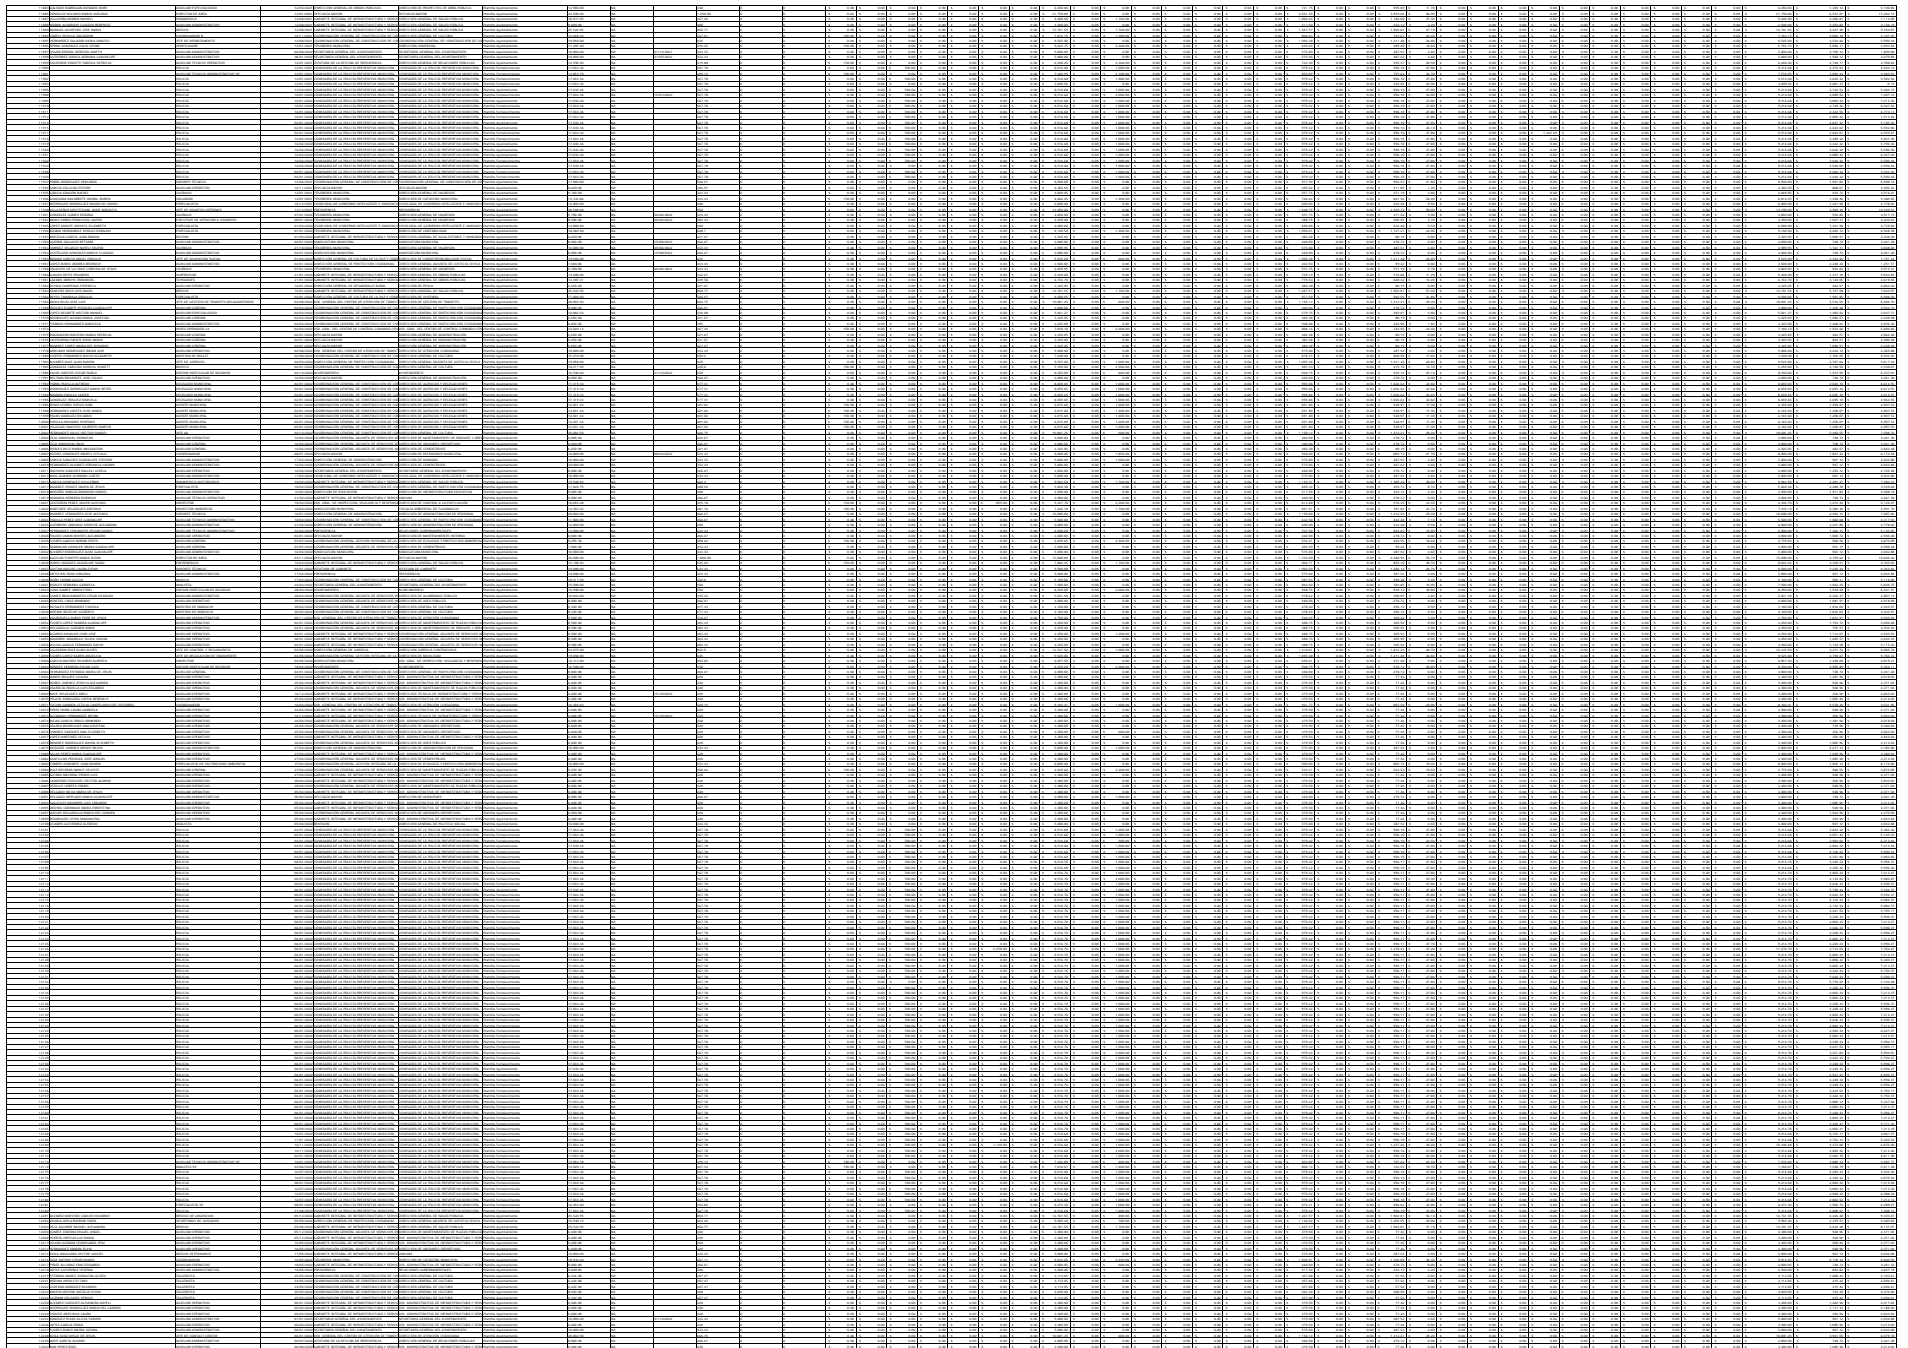

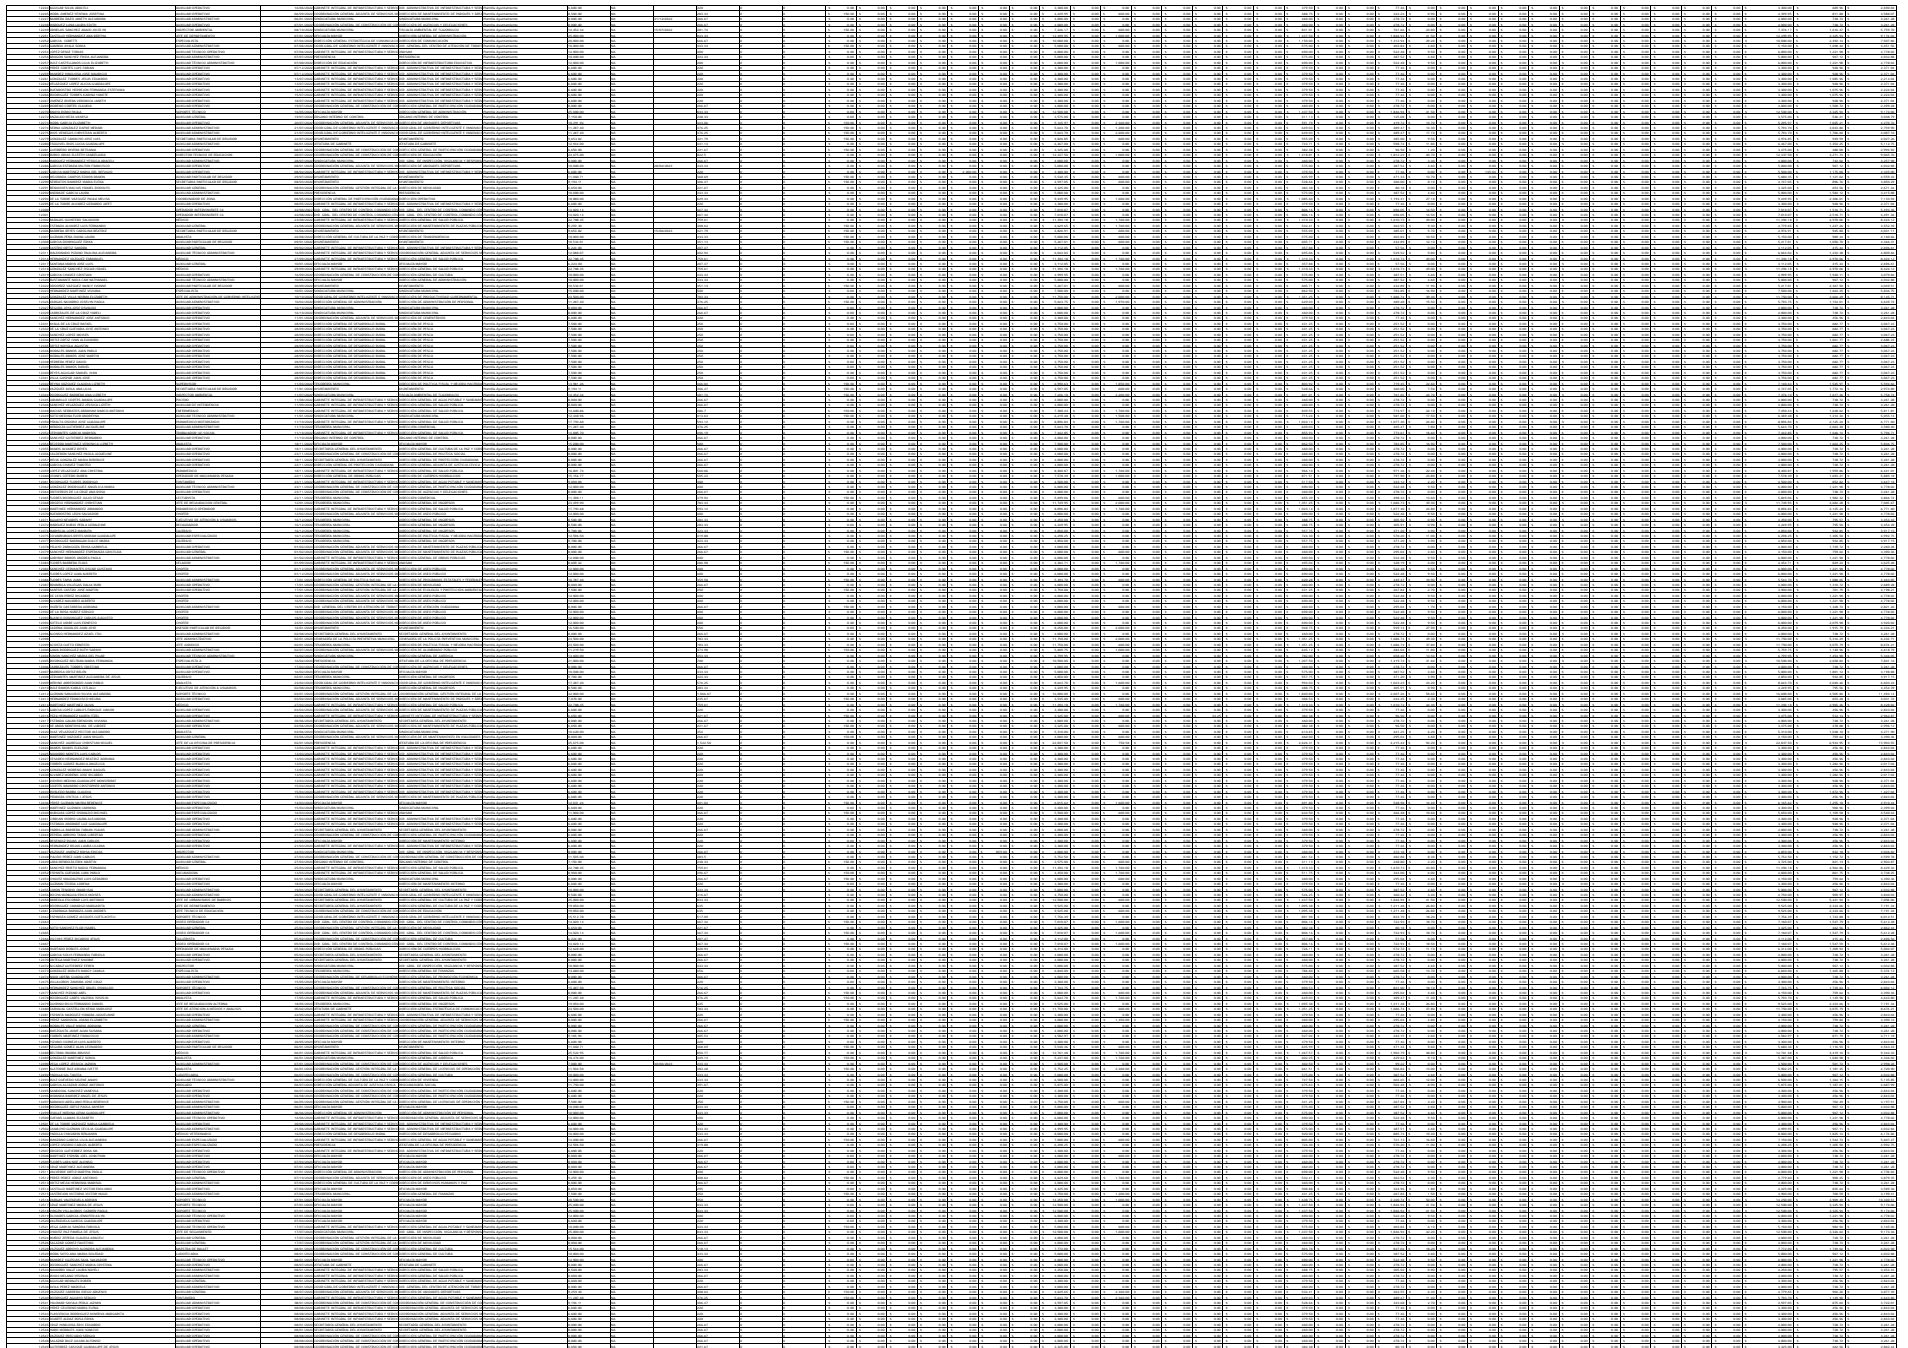

This image shows a large grid of empty cells, resembling a spreadsheet or ledger page. The grid is composed of many columns and rows, forming a dense array of small squares. There is no text or data within the cells.
